Providence College Center for International Studies and School of Business
Policy on Study Abroad Courses

Study Abroad for Business Majors

Majors and minors in the School of Business who plan to study abroad should choose from the List of Pre-Approved Recognized Programs on the website of the Center for International Studies (http://www.providence.edu/cis/Study-Abroad/programs-by-major/Pages/business.aspx). Course offerings vary by program. It is ultimately the responsibility of the student to review carefully the courses available on the selected program. Students are encouraged to meet with Allie Agati, Assistant Dean of International Studies and study abroad advisor for the School of Business, in order to determine which courses they may take abroad.

Providence College School of Business (PCSB) Core

ACC 110 Computer Applications in Business I
ACC 111 Computer Applications in Business II
ACC 203 Financial Accounting
ACC 204 Managerial Accounting
FIN 207 Managerial Finance
FIN 217 Statistical Analysis for Business Decisions I (formerly MGT 201)
FIN 310 Operations Management (formerly MGT 310)
MGT 301 Organizational Behavior
MGT 330 Legal Environment for Business I
MKT 205 Principles of Marketing

Additional PCSB Required Courses

These courses fulfill PCSB requirements and College Core requirements. The courses listed below do not count towards the limits established in the subsequent course policies.

ECN 101 Principles of Economics – Micro
ECN 102 Principles of Economics – Macro
MTH 108 Math for Business Analysis II (MTH 217 or higher is required for Finance majors)
PHL 306 Business Ethics (preferred) or another College-Approved Ethics Course
Course Policies by PCSB Major

Accountancy Majors
Due to the differences in accounting standards and principles internationally, students may not enroll in any Accountancy major courses abroad to fulfill major requirements.

Accountancy majors may take:
1. Up to three (3) courses abroad that will fulfill PCSB core requirements.

Finance Majors
The Finance major offers one major elective course at the 400-level.

Finance majors may meet the following business course requirements abroad:
1. Up to three (3) courses that are part of the PCSB core or Finance major.
2. Up to two (2) of these courses may be part of the Finance major requirements or major electives.

Management and Marketing Majors
The Management and Marketing curriculums both offer two major elective courses.

Management and Marketing majors may meet the following business course requirements abroad:
1. Up to three (3) courses that are part of the PCSB core or student’s major.
2. Up to two (2) courses may be part of the student’s major requirements or major electives. Students may take:
   a. One major requirement and one major elective.
   b. Two major electives.
Double Majors in Two Business Disciplines

Students who major in two business disciplines (ACC, FIN, MGT, MKT) may take the following business course requirements abroad:

1. Up to four (4) courses that are part of the PCSB core or student’s majors, with the exception of Accountancy major courses.

2. Up to two (2) courses may be part of each of the student’s major requirements or major electives, with the exception of Accountancy majors. (E.g., A maximum of two major courses in one business discipline and two major courses in the other discipline.)

Business Majors and Minors

Students who declare a major in one business discipline (ACC, FIN, MGT, MKT) and choose to minor in another business discipline may take the following business course requirements abroad:

1. Up to four (4) courses that are part of the PCSB core, student’s major (with the exception of Accountancy major courses), or student’s minor.

2. Up to two (2) courses may be part of the student’s major, with the exception of Accountancy majors.

3. Up to two (2) courses may be part of the student’s minor.

University College Dublin Quinn School of Business

Students who participate in the University College Dublin program through Arcadia or IFSA-Butler are required to enroll in a minimum of four (4) courses in the Quinn School of Business.

Students on this program may take the following business course requirements abroad:

1. Up to four (4) courses that are part of the PCSB core or student’s major, with the exception of Accountancy majors.

2. Up to two (2) courses may be part of the student’s major requirements or major electives, with the exception of Accountancy majors.

Effective Fall 2015 Semester - Last Revised May 2015