

PC MBA Goes Global

As the US economy expands globally, companies are increasingly hiring individuals with a global mindset, vision and experience.

To meet these international needs PC is increasing its global reach with a new course – MBA 695 - Global Management and International Experience.

This intense international course will provide PC MBA students corporate visits to French companies, attendance at NEOMA Business School in Paris, Rouen and potentially Reims, as well as cultural visits.

New Focused Short-Term Study Abroad in France MBA 695 - Global Management and International Experience

The Providence College School of Business is partnering with the NEOMA Business School, a premier European AACSB-accredited business school in France and our MBA exchange partner, to offer a 7 day program. Students will attend MBA classes and lectures taught in English at the Paris, Rouen and potentially Reims campuses, as well as 3-4 company/site visits and 2-3 cultural visits. Potential company visits will include Chanel or Louis Vuitton, Schneider Electric and a Champagne House. Potential cultural visits will include Versailles and Normandy.

The course will consist of class meetings pre and post the one-week international experience on the following days: January 30, March 19, April 9, and one class meeting to Schneider Electric, their US corporate headquarters in Andover, MA (TBD). The majority of the international portion of this course will take place over spring break tentatively from February 27-March 5 (program ends March 4). This 3-credit course will count towards a Management or International Business elective.

Students will be required to complete an application and provide a $500 non-refundable deposit by October 15, 2015 in order to secure a spot in the class and for the trip. A second $500 non-refundable payment is due December 1, 2015, and the final non-refundable payment of $1,150 is due January 10, 2016. Space is limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The program requires a minimum number of students to be offered.

Information session, October 1, 2015, 5:30-6:30pm, Ruane LL05.

STUDENTS MUST HAVE A PASSPORT THAT IS VALID FOR THE DURATION OF THE TRIP (including 6 months prior to trip). When submitting this application, please bring a valid passport for verification.
