

Robert Clark '80

President, Technology Staffing Services
& Robert Half Legal
Robert Half

Bob Clark is president of Technology Staffing Services and Robert Half Legal at Robert Half (NYSE: RHI). In this role, he oversees all operations for the company's Robert Half Technology, The Creative Group and Robert Half Legal divisions, leading providers of highly skilled technology, creative and legal professionals, respectively.

He joined RH, the world's first and largest specialized staffing firm, in 1995 as a consulting services manager in Chicago. Since then he has held several pivotal senior leadership positions. Prior to being appointed to his current role, Clark served as president of staffing operations for the central U.S. overseeing the company's divisions in more than 90 locations. He has spent essentially his entire career in the Staffing industry.

Bob previously served on the Providence College National Board of Overseers. He currently serves on the Executive Board of Regis Jesuit High School's Foundations for Excellence Campaign as well as Chairman of the Providence College School of Business Advisory Council and Junior Achievement of Colorado Board.

He is a 1980 graduate of Providence College where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree with a dual major in Economics and Health Service Administration.