

Robert J. Reilly '86
Chief Investment Officer
Sandy Cove Advisors

Robert J. Reilly is chief investment officer for Sandy Cove Advisors in Hingham, Mass. Mr. Reilly brings over 20 years of experience, having previously served as executive director and senior banker for J.P. Morgan Private Bank and having advised private clients and institutional investment managers on strategy and execution at UBS, Lehman Brothers, and Piper Jaffray. He has also dedicated his time and efforts to positions with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) which promotes “Investor Protection and Market Integrity.”

Mr. Reilly has both a BS from Providence College and an MBA from Babson’s Olin School of Business. He is an active alumnus and is Co-Chair of Providence College’s Boston President’s Council. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Hingham Federal Credit Union and coaches youth lacrosse and basketball.