Assistant Vice Present
State Street Corporation
lnouel@hotmail.com

Luis Nouel is an Assistant Vice President at State Street Corporation. He is part of State Street's Leadership Development Program (LDP). The LDP is a global, enterprise-wide, 2 year rotational program designed to identify and develop future leaders. Luis started his first rotation in February 2020 with Global Technology Solutions – Planning and Strategy.

During Luis' 14 year tenure at State Street, Luis has held various internal consulting and operational roles. Prior to the LDP, Luis was an internal consultant responsible for driving the adoption of State Street's new operating model through business redesign and digitization. Luis has also managed operational teams within Client Operations, Fund Accounting, and the Exchange Traded Funds (ETF) group.

Luis earned his MBA from Suffolk University (2013) and a BS in Business Management from Providence College (2005). Additionally, Luis is a member of State Street's PC Alumni Club (President), the Latin American Professional Group, Black Professional Group, and Professional Women's Network.

PC students can reach him at lnouel@hotmail.com.
