

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

Alumni of Color
Network

Lex Bramwell '06

Director of Claims

USAbLe Life

lexbram@gmail.com

A native of Hartford, Connecticut, Lex received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from PC as a member of the Class of 2006. While a student at PC Lex was active as a Resident Assistant, PC Pal, President of the African American Society, SOAR member and several intramural sports teams. Lex began his insurance career at Cigna as a sophomore in High School and worked 4 summers at The Travelers during college as an INROADS intern. Lex leveraged his contacts through the INROADS program to land a role at Group Reinsurance Plus, a division of The Hartford in 2007. During his ten years with The Hartford, Lex held several roles in claims including Claims Examiner, Training Consultant, Team Leader and Claims Manager. Lex is currently the Director of Claims at USAbLe Life, headquartered in Little Rock, Arkansas where he now resides. Lex leads a team of 50+ Life, Disability, and Supplemental claims professionals, where his responsibilities include directing, coaching, and developing The USAbLe claims staff to improve the department's efficiency, expand service capabilities, and implement strategies to meet the growing needs of USAbLe Life's partners and customers. He serves as a member of Providence College National Alumni Association and was formerly the President of the Greater Hartford INROADS Alumni Association and Head Coach for the West Hartford Youth Basketball League.

