

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

 MBA Program

Full Time & Part Time Programs of Study

The Providence College MBA Program is flexible and can be completed either full-time or part-time. Below are two sample programs of study. Please note in both sample cases, all prerequisite courses have been completed. Full-time students enroll in a minimum of 3 courses and a maximum of 4 courses per semester, while part-time students enroll in 1 to 2 courses per semester.

Full-Time, 1 Year (Sample Track)

Summer Term II

Real-World Experience: Business Internship

Fall

MBA 687: Statistics for Business Analytics
MBA 603: Accounting and Decision-Making in Organizations
MBA 689: Managing Information Resources
MBA 676: Organizational Effectiveness, People and Teams

Winter Intersession

Elective I

Spring

MBA 690: Analytics in Operations Management
MBA 651: Marketing Management in Competitive Environments
MBA 626: Financial Management for Corporations
MBA 677: Professional Ethics and Responsibility

Summer Term I

MBA 700: Strategic Management in a Global Business Environment
Elective II
Elective III

Part-Time, 2 Year (Sample Track) *

Fall

MBA 603: Accounting and Decision-Making in Organizations
MBA 651: Marketing Management in Competitive Environments

Wintersession

Elective I

Spring

MBA 687: Statistics for Business Analytics
MBA 676: Organizational Effectiveness Through People and Teams

Summer Term I or Summer Term II

MBA 626: Financial Management for Corporations
MBA 689: Managing Information Resources

Fall (Second Year)

MBA 690: Analytics in Operations Management
MBA 677: Professional Ethics and Responsibility or MBA 674: Global Ethics

Wintersession (Second Year)

Elective II

Spring (Second Year)

MBA 700: Strategic Management in a Global Business Environment
Elective III

Courses and sequencing are subject to change.

Program cost information can be found on www.bursar.providence.edu. Cost are subject to change on an annual basis.

Financial and Graduate Assistantship information can be found at <http://financial-aid.providence.edu/graduate>. Students with Graduate Assistantships are responsible for GA policies. Refer to <http://financial-aid.providence.edu/graduate-assistantships>.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

MBA Program

Full Time & Part Time Program Overview

For degree completion, the MBA Program requires foundation courses, core courses, electives & work/internship experience.

REQUIRED FOUNDATION COURSES

These courses are required for conferral of the MBA Degree:

ACC 203	Financial Accounting	FIN 207	Managerial Finance I
ACC 204	Managerial Accounting	MTH 108	Mathematics for Business Analysis
ECN 101	Micro Economics	FIN 217 or MTH 217	Statistical Analysis
ECN 102	Macro Economics	MKT 205	Principles of Marketing

OTHER PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

- Real-world business experience/internship
- MBA 502 Foundations of Business

REQUIRED CORE COURSES (ten):

Please note: It is recommended that students take MBA 687 prior to 690 and 603, 626, 651, and 690 earlier in the program, as these courses are required for MBA 700 and some are prerequisites for electives.

Required Courses	Prerequisites
MBA 603* - Acct. and Decision Making in Organizations	MBA 548 or ACC 203/204
MBA 689 - Managing Information Resources	None
MBA 651* - Marketing Management in Competitive Env.	MKT 205
MBA 626* - Financial Management for Corporations	MBA 548 or ACC 203/204; MBA 533 or ECN 101/102; MBA 532 or FIN 207
MBA 687 - Statistics for Business Analytics	FIN 217 or MTH 217
MBA 690- Analytics in Operations Management	MBA 687 and MTH 108
MBA 676* - Organizational Effectiveness Through People and Teams	None
MBA 677 - Professional Ethics and Responsibility or MBA 674 - Global Ethics MBA 611 - Accounting Ethics	None
MBA 700 - Strategic Management in a Global Business Environments	MBA 603, 651, 626, 690
Elective I	Prerequisites will vary by course
Elective II	Prerequisites will vary by course
Elective III*	Prerequisites will vary by course

* Students who have taken 6 courses in Accounting, Finance, Marketing or Management and have a “B” in each course may choose to waive the equivalent core requirement and replace the credits with an MBA elective. Students can elect to waive MBA 699: Real-World Experience: Business Internship. Students must take electives in the place of any waived courses.