

Meghan Hinds '00

Division Executive, Restaurant Finance,
Hospitality Division
Wells Fargo & Company

Meghan Hinds is a division executive in the Hospitality Group at Wells Fargo Bank overseeing an $8 billion portfolio across a variety of segments, including the Restaurant Operating, Franchisor, and Franchisee platforms as well as the Convenience Store and Single-Tenant Real Estate divisions. Based in Boston, she manages a group of experienced business development officers, portfolio managers, and operations members responsible for the structuring, underwriting, and monitoring of credit exposure to client relationships. Meghan is also responsible for client development and internal initiatives centered on the recruiting, on-boarding, and developing of talent. She has more than 20 years of experience in Corporate Banking and Capital Markets focused on both the origination and execution of debt transactions.

Prior to joining the Restaurant Finance Group at Wells Fargo Bank in 2009, Meghan worked in the Debt Capital Markets group at Wells Fargo accountable for structuring, pricing, and distributing Debt Private Placements in support of the broader Middle Market Banking platform. She also worked in the Corporate Banking and High Yield Debt Origination groups at Bank of America and Fleet Bank, respectively.

Meghan played professional basketball in Copenhagen, Denmark. She holds a B.S. in finance, magna cum laude, from Providence College and is Series 7 and 63 Licensed. Meghan was a captain and 1,000+ point scorer for the Providence College Women's Basketball Team. She serves as a member of the Advisory Council Board at the Providence College School of Business. Her charitable efforts are focused on human rights.