Senior Business Analyst
Fidelity Investments

Sam Scanlon '19 '20G joined Fidelity Investments in 2022 and is currently a senior business analyst on the enterprise relationship management team. Sam helps to support the cross-business unit, and holistic relationships of Fidelity's most strategic technology sector clients. Additionally, Sam is responsible for developing new relationships with emerging technology companies by making impactful connections across all Fidelity business units.

Prior to joining Fidelity, Sam served as a wealth advisor at McAdam Financial where he worked with private wealth clients. Sam focused his practice on retirement planning, tax minimization, investment advice, education planning, estate planning, and insurance solutions to help his clients achieve their short and long-term financial goals.

Sam earned his MBA with a concentration in business analytics from Providence College in 2020 and his BS in management from Providence College in 2019.
